

Elizabeth Galbreath is the NAADA Volunteer Track Chair and has served as a volunteer for her alma mater, Virginia Tech since her graduation in 2017. She was the President of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences Alumni Organization and received the 2024 Outstanding Recent Undergraduate Alumni Award for CALS. Now based in Raleigh, North Carolina, Elizabeth serves as the voice of the volunteers on the NAADA Board while she pursues her full-time career as the Professional Development Program Manager at BASF Agricultural Solutions.