Nothing beats the feeling of coming home. ❤️

To celebrate Homecoming, we asked our students what CASNR meant to them. Some said it's family. Others said it's a place where everyone is welcome, that it's more than a college, and it's more than an education.

While it means something different to each member of our #CASNRFamily, one thing remains the same: CASNR is home.

FFA opened doors for Lauren Millang, a former California FFA member and current OSU Agricultural Education, Communications & Leadership student, and those doors led her to Oklahoma State University. She came from 1,700 miles away to join the #CASNRFamily.

If you are at National FFA Convention and are looking for a college to call home, come see us at the CASNR Booth! #FFAJustOne #RushCASNR

National FFA Convention is where Jack Palla decided he wanted to be part of the #CASNRFamily. A little hesitant to leave his hometown of Clovis, New Mexico, this former New Mexico FFA member found his second home in CASNR.

No matter where you're from, you can find your home at Oklahoma State University. #FFAJustOne #RushCASNR

Tegan Maxson, a biochemistry and molecular biology student at Oklahoma State University and former Kansas FFA Association member, wanted to find a college that gave her the same family atmosphere she experienced in FFA, and she found that in CASNR.

Today is our last day at National FFA Convention. Come by our booth and let us tell you how you can join our #CASNRFamily!
